Bills and Reports of Select Committees on Bills

HOUSE OF THE PEOPLE

The following Bills were introduced in the House of the People on 14th November, 1952:—

BILL No. 109 OF 1952

A Bill to provide for the repeal of the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949.

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Repealing Act, 1952.

2. Repeal of Act XXIII of 1949 and Ordinance VII of 1952.—The Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949, and the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Repealing Ordinance, 1952, are hereby repealed.

3. Savings.—(1) The repeal of the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949 (XXIII of 1949), shall not affect the continuance in force, according to its tenor, of any permit which is intended to continue in force beyond the 15th day of October, 1952, and any person who commits a breach of any of the conditions of the permit or against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed such breach, may be prosecuted, punished or proceeded against under section 5 or section 7 of the Act hereby repealed as if the said section had continued in force.

(2) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the provisions contained in sub-section (1) shall be without prejudice to the general application of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The admission into, and regulation of movements in, India of persons from Pakistan, has hitherto been regulated by a system of permits granted under the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949 (XXIII of 1949). It was, however, agreed with the Government of Pakistan that

✓ with effect from a prescribed date, the permit system should be replaced by a system of passports. Accordingly, the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Repealing Ordinance, 1952 (VII of 1952), was promulgated to repeal the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Act, 1949. The repeal of the Act was effective from 15th October, 1952, and with effect from the same date traffic between the two countries is being regulated by a passport system.

2. This Bill seeks to convert the provisions of the Influx from Pakistan (Control) Repealing Ordinance, 1952 (VII of 1952) into an Act.

BILL* No. 114 of 1952

A Bill further to amend the Rehabilitation Finance Administration Act, 1948

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Rehabilitation Finance Administration (Amendment) Act, 1952.

2. Amendment of section 11, Act XIII of 1948.—For sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Rehabilitation Finance Administration Act, 1948 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

(a) for the purpose of enabling the Administration to advance loans, shall not, save as hereinafter provided, exceed twelve crores and fifty lakhs of rupees; and

(b) for the purpose of enabling the Administration to meet any liability which it may incur in guaranteeing losses in respect of loans advanced by scheduled banks, shall not exceed two crores of rupees:

Provided that the Central Government may, after such date as may be specified by it in this behalf, advance from time to time any sum of money, earmarked for the purpose specified in clause (b), for the purpose specified in clause (a), if that sum is not actually advanced for the purpose specified in clause (b) and is not, in the opinion of the Central Government, likely to be required for the purpose of such advance, and when any such advance is so made, the limit specified in clause (a) shall be increased accordingly.”

3. Substitution of new section for section 12, Act XII of 1948.—For section 12 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“12. Business of the Administration.—The Administration may—

(a) subject to the provisions of section 13, advance loans;

Provided that the total amount which may be guaranteed in respect of any scheduled bank and the terms and conditions on which such guarantee may be given shall be subject to the prior approval of the Central Government:

Provided further that the maximum liability of the Administration under such guarantee shall not exceed the amount for the time being available under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 11;

*The President has, in pursuance of clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution of India, recommended to the House of the People the consideration of the Bill.

(c) do all such acts and things as may be incidental to or consequential upon the performance of its functions under this Act including the running of the Administration "

4. Amendment of section 13, Act XII of 1948.—In sub-section (4) of section 13 of the principal Act, for the word "ten" the word "fifteen" shall be substituted.

5. Substitution of new section for section 16 in Act XII of 1948.—For section 16 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"16. Accounts and audit.—(1) The Administration shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the profit and loss account and the balance sheet in such form as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of the Administration shall be audited annually by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Administration to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Administration shall have the same rights, privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of Government accounts and in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect any of the offices of the Administration.

(4) The accounts of the Administration as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

When the Rehabilitation Finance Administration (Amendment) Bill, 1950 came up for consideration, suggestions were made in the House that the existing provision of Rs. 3 crores under clauses (b) and (c) of section 12 for granting financial assistance through the medium of normal banking channels which had not been availed of by the Scheduled Banks should be transferred for the grant of direct loans by the Administration. The applications for loans still pending with the Administration further suggest that even if the total amount for direct loans by the Administration is thus raised to Rs. 10 crores, it will not be adequate for the purpose. The amending bill, therefore, seeks to increase this amount to Rs. 12.5 crores. It is also considered that though the re-discounting facilities under clause (b) of section 12 may be deleted as they are not likely to be availed of, some Scheduled Banks may now come forward to grant loans if full loss is guaranteed by the Administration under clause (c) of section 12. This clause is being amended accordingly and provision is being made to permit of any portion of the Rs. 2 crores provided under the clause being transferred for the purpose of the grant of direct loans by the Administration. It has also been found that clause (a) of section 12 as at present worded does not permit the Administration to utilise moneys recovered from loans for the grant of fresh loans after the maximum limit prescribed therein has been reached. That clause has been amended to remove this anomaly. The Bill also seeks to achieve the following objects:—

(i) to diminish the hardship of loanees by extending the period of repayment of loans from 10 to 15 years,

(ii) to remove a lacuna in the Act regarding the powers of the Administration to meet the running cost out of the funds at its disposal; and

(iii) to entrust the audit of accounts of the Administration to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

NEW DELHI;

The 12th November, 1952.

Notes on clauses

Clause 2—The total fund to be placed at the disposal of the Administration is being raised from Rs. 10 crores to Rs. 14.5 crores. Out of this Rs. 12.5 crores will be available for the grant of loans to displaced persons and the balance for the reimbursement of losses to Scheduled Banks in respect of loans advanced by them to displaced persons which are guaranteed by the Administration. Any amount not utilised for the purpose of meeting the losses of Scheduled Banks is allowed to be transferred by Government for the purpose of grant of direct loans by the Administration. No provision is being made for re-discounting facilities to Scheduled Banks as the provision in this behalf contained in clause (b) of section 12 of the principal Act has not so far been availed of by any Bank.

Clause 3.—This section has been modified as follows:—

(1) The financial limits at present prescribed for granting direct loans by the Administration are omitted.

(2) It is now being provided that the Administration may guarantee the full loss which a Scheduled Bank may incur in advancing loans to displaced persons.

(3) A new clause (c) is added to enable the Administration to incur the cost of running the administration.

Clause 4.—It has been represented that the maximum period of 10 years for repayment of loans at present available is not adequate as it takes a displaced person considerable time to establish his business or industry. The maximum period of repayment is therefore being increased to 15 years.

Clause 5.—The Public Accounts Committee recommended that the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India should be empowered to conduct a test audit of the accounts of the Administration. As the Rehabilitation

Finance Administration is wholly financed by Government, it has been decided in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General that he shall undertake full responsibility for the audit of the accounts of the Administration.

BILL No. 111 of 1952

A Bill to amend the Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1950

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Amendment Act, 1952.

2. Amendment of section 2, Act LXXIV of 1950.—For clause (b) of section 2 of the Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(b) “telegraph wire” means any copper wire the gauge of which, as measured in terms of pounds per mile, is between 147 and 153, or between 196 and 204 or between 294 and 306.”

3. Insertion of new section 4A in Act LXXIV of 1950.—After section 4 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“4A Prohibition of sale or purchase of telegraph wires.—No person shall, after the commencement of the Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Amendment Act, 1952, sell or purchase any quantity of telegraph wires except with the permission of such authority as may be prescribed.”

4. Amendment of section 5, Act LXXIV of 1950.—In section 5 of the principal Act, the words “which the court has reason to believe to be, or to have been, the property of the Posts and Telegraphs Department of the Central Government” shall be omitted.

5. Amendment of section 6, Act LXXIV of 1950.—In section 6 of the principal Act, for the words and figure “fails to comply with the provisions of section 4” the words, figures and letter “contravenes the provisions of section 4 or section 4A” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1950 (LXXIV of 1950) was passed to deal with the serious situation caused by large scale thefts of telegraph wires in several parts of India, particularly in Bengal, Bihar, Orissa and Mysore. In order to bring the offenders to book in a court of law, section 5 of the Act placed on a person found in possession of copper wires of the specified gauges used in the Posts and Telegraphs Department, the onus of proving that such possession was lawful. Such a provision was found necessary due to the extreme difficulty in establishing the identity of the stolen property before a court of law. In interpreting this section, the courts have held in one or two instances that before the onus shifts to the accused to prove that he came into possession of the wires lawfully, the prosecution has to discharge the initial onus of furnishing evidence on which the courts would have reason to believe that the wires were or had been the property of the Posts and Telegraphs Department. Such interpretation has rendered the Act largely ineffective.

2. The object of the present Bill is to amend section 5 of the Act so that the onus of proving that the copper wires were not the property of the Posts and Telegraphs Department will lie on the accused. The opportunity is also taken to amend the definition of the expression 'telegraph wires' and to prohibit future sale or purchase of telegraph wires, except with the permission of a prescribed authority.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any report made by the Tariff Commission before the commencement of this Act respecting the value of ordinary shares in the Iron and Steel Company in relation to the value of ordinary shares in the dissolved company shall be deemed to have been validly made and shall not be called in question in any court.

(3) Every shareholder in the dissolved company to whom a preference share has been allotted under this section shall be entitled—

(i) to receive a fixed cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of five per cent. per annum as from the 1st day of January, 1953, on the capital for the time being paid up or credited as having been fully paid up thereon without deduction of Indian income-tax paid by the company;

Priority as between secured creditors of the dissolved company and secured creditors of the Iron and Steel Company.—Creditors of the dissolved company whose debts are secured by a mortgage, charge or lien on the property of the dissolved company or any part thereof shall, with reference to similar secured creditors of the Iron and Steel Company, have such priority in the repayment of the debts as may be determined by agreement between the Iron and Steel Company and the secured creditors of the dissolved company:

Provided that in the absence of any such agreement the matter shall be referred by the Iron and Steel Company to the determination of such person as may be appointed by the Central Government in this behalf, and the decision of such person shall be final and binding on the Iron and Steel Company and the secured creditors concerned.

9. Provisions with respect to taxation.—(1) The Iron and Steel Company shall be taxable in respect of the profits and gains of the business carried on by the dissolved company before the appointed day to the same extent as the dissolved company would have been taxable if this Act had not been passed, and the Iron and Steel Company shall, in its assessment, be entitled to claim all such allowances under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922) as the dissolved company could have claimed in its assessment if this Act had not been passed.

(2) For the purposes of any law relating to taxation on income, the original cost to the Iron and Steel Company of the buildings, machinery, plant or furniture of the dissolved company transferred to it by virtue of this Act shall be deemed to be the written down value thereof, as reduced by the initial depreciation permitted by sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Indian Income-Tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), which has been or could have been computed by the dissolved company on the appointed day if this Act had not been passed.

10. Payment of interim dividends to shareholders in the dissolved company.—If the profits of the dissolved company warrant such a course, the directors of the dissolved company may, at any time before the appointed day, declare the following dividends as being payable—

(b) to the holders of ordinary shares whose names appear on the register of the company on the date of such payment, an interim dividend not exceeding two and a half per cent. on the amount paid up or credited as having been fully paid up thereon without deduction of Indian income-tax payable by the dissolved company for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1952, and ending with the 31st day of December, 1952.

11. Provisions respecting existing officers and other servants of the dissolved company.—Every officer or other servant (including within that expression auditors but excluding therefrom directors, managing agents and London Committee Members) employed immediately before the appointed day in the dissolved company shall, as from the appointed day, become an officer or other servant, as the case may be, of the Iron and Steel Company and shall hold his office or service therein by the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension or gratuity as he would have held the same under the dissolved company if this Act had not been passed, and shall continue to do so unless and until he is duly removed from his employment in the Iron and Steel Company or until his terms and conditions of employment are duly altered by that Company.

12. Position of directors of the dissolved company.—Every director of the dissolved company holding office as such immediately before the appointed day shall become, as from the appointed day, a director of the Iron and Steel Company, in addition to the other directors of the Iron and Steel Company holding office as such before the appointed day, and shall, subject to the provisions of the articles of association of the Iron and Steel Company, hold his office and act in all respects as if he had been duly appointed under the said articles.

13. Dissolution of the Steel Corporation of Bengal, Limited.—As from the appointed day—

(a) the Steel Corporation of Bengal, Limited, shall be dissolved and thereafter no person shall make, assert or take any claims, demands or proceedings against the dissolved company or against a director or officer thereof in his capacity as such director or officer, except in so far as may be necessary, for enforcing the provisions of this Act;

(b) the right of every shareholder to or in respect of any share in the dissolved company shall be extinguished, and thereafter no such shareholder shall make, assert or take any claims or demands or proceedings in respect of any such share except as provided in this Act.

14. Power to make rules for facilitating amalgamation.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such incidental, consequential or supplementary provisions as in its opinion are necessary for fully and effectually carrying out the purposes of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of such power, provision may be made in such rules—

(a) for the allotting or appropriation by the Iron and Steel Company of any shares, debentures, policies or other like interests in that company which are to be allotted or appropriated under this Act by that company to or from any person;

(b) for the disposal of shares in the dissolved company which do not represent one fully paid up share in the Iron and Steel Company

under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 7, whether by the surrender to the Iron and Steel Company of the fractional certificates relating thereto with other fractional certificates so as to represent in all one fully paid up share, or, at the option of the shareholder, by the surrender of the fractional certificates to the Iron and Steel Company for sale by the company on his account;

(c) for fixing the period within which any action required to be taken under this Act may be taken;

(d) for the alteration, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (VII of 1913), of the memorandum or articles of association of the Iron and Steel Company for the purpose of increasing the capital of the company or the borrowing powers of the directors thereof or for the purpose of securing the representation of the Central Government on the Board of Directors of the company or for any other purpose;

(e) for requiring any person concerned with the keeping of the register of the holders of any shares, securities or investments now transferred to and vesting in the Iron and Steel Company to forthwith register the name of the Iron and Steel Company therein, and to issue to the Iron and Steel Company the appropriate documents of title relating to the shares, securities or investments transferred to and vesting in it.

15. Repeal of Ordinance VIII of 1952.—The Iron and Steel Companies Amalgamation Ordinance, 1952 (VIII of 1952), is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Tariff Board and the Tariff Commission recommended on successive occasions that in the larger interests of the steel industry in India, the Indian Iron and Steel Co., Ltd. should be amalgamated with the Steel Corporation of Bengal, Ltd. as such amalgamation would eliminate duplication and waste and ultimately tend to reduce costs of production. In view of the serious shortage of steel in India for essential nation-building activities, it has also become imperative that the schemes approved by Government for the expansion of the steel production capacity of these Companies should be given effect to without further delay and that necessary financial and other resources should be made available to them. Effective action in this behalf is possible only after the amalgamation of the Companies. In view of the urgency of the matter, and the desirability of avoiding any speculation in the market, it was decided that an Ordinance should be promulgated for securing this amalgamation. The Government of India accordingly promulgated the Iron and Steel Companies Amalgamation Ordinance, 1952, on the 29th October 1952.

The present Bill is intended to replace the Ordinance.

BILL* No. 115 OF 1952

A Bill to amend the Court-fees Act, 1870, in its application to the State of Manipur, for the purpose of giving effect in that State to certain amendments made in that Act by Assam Act VIII of 1950, and to validate the levy of court-fees in certain cases.

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Manipur Court-fees (Amendment and Validation) Act, 1952.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Manipur.

2. Court-fees Act, 1870, to be in force in Manipur, as amended by Assam Act VIII of 1950.—On and from the commencement of this Act, the Court-fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), in its application to the State of Manipur, shall have effect as if it had been amended in the manner specified in sections 2 to 16 inclusive of, and the Schedule to, the Assam Court-fees (Amendment) Act, 1950 (Assam Act VIII of 1950).

3. Validation of levy of court-fees in certain cases.—Any court-fees levied in the State of Manipur during the period commencing on the 16th day of April, 1950, and ending with the date of commencement of this Act, which would have been validly levied if the amendments made to the Court-fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), by this Act were in force on the date of such levy, shall be deemed to have been validly levied.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Indian Court-fees Act, 1870, is one of the many Central Acts which were extended on the 16th day of April, 1950, to Manipur by the Part C States (Laws) Act, 1950, but as Manipur follows the neighbouring State of Assam in many administrative matters, court-fees were and are being actually levied in Manipur under the Court-fees Act, 1870, as amended in Assam by Assam Act VIII of 1950. In the circumstances, it is necessary and desirable that the Assam amendments should be formally made applicable to Manipur, and the levy of court-fees at the enhanced rates hitherto expressly saved. It is not possible to extend the Assam law to Manipur by a notification under the Part C States (Laws) Act, 1950, as that would virtually have the effect of repealing pro tanto a Central law. Hence the present Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this amending Bill is to amend the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867, on the basis partly of the recommendations made by the Press Laws Enquiry Committee which had been set up by the Government of India and partly on the basis of the recommendations made by

State Governments who have experienced difficulties in the working of the Act. The main amendments are as follows:—
